The programmes equip future teachers to combine the best of Western pedagogical practices with the ideals of the Gurukul system of India and make classrooms a more student-centric space

REPORT OF ANNUAL ACTIVITIES CONDUCTED UNDER MOU WITH WORLD PEACE UNIVERSITY

Introduction: The Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) between MAEER's Saint Dnyaneshwar B.Ed. College and World Peace University has fostered a strong collaboration aimed at enhancing academic and research endeavors. This partnership has led to a series of annual activities that promote faculty and student exchange, participation in conferences, and engagement in various workshops and Faculty Development Programs (FDPs). Additionally, faculty members have taken on roles as external paper setters, contributing to the academic growth of both institutions.

Faculty and Student Exchange: One of the key components of the collaboration involves faculty and student exchange programs. This initiative allows educators and learners from both institutions to gain exposure to different teaching methodologies, academic cultures, and research perspectives. Such exchanges enable the cross-pollination of ideas and the sharing of best practices, enriching the educational experience for everyone involved.

Participation in Conferences: Both Saint Dnyaneshwar B.Ed. College and World Peace University actively participate in conferences organized by each other. This engagement provides a platform for scholars, researchers, and students to showcase their work, share insights, and engage in meaningful discussions on a wide range of subjects. These conferences serve as a bridge between the two institutions, fostering intellectual exchange and collaboration. Workshops and FDPs: The collaboration also encompasses participation in workshops and Faculty Development Programs (FDPs). These events are designed to enhance the professional skills of educators, keeping them up-to-date with the latest teaching methodologies and research trends. By attending these sessions, faculty members from both institutions gain valuable insights that ultimately benefit their students' learning experiences. Role of Faculty Members: Three faculty members from Saint Dnyaneshwar B.Ed. College have taken on the responsibility of being external paper setters at World Peace University.

REPORT OF ANNUAL ACTIVITIES CONDUCTED UNDER MOU WITH WORLD PEACE UNIVERSITY

This contribution underscores the academic expertise and commitment of the faculty members, as they play an integral role in shaping the assessment and evaluation processes at the partner institution. Special Lecture by Dr. Aasha Chaudhary: Dr. Aasha Chaudhary, a distinguished faculty member from World Peace University, conducts an annual special lecture on the topic "Course 210 Basics of Research." at SD B.Ed. College. This lecture is a highlight of the collaboration, as it allows students from both institutions to benefit from Dr. Chaudhary's extensive knowledge and experience in the field of research. This lecture series contributes significantly to enhancing students' understanding of research fundamentals.

Conclusion: The MoU between Saint Dnyaneshwar B.Ed. College and World Peace University has resulted in a dynamic and fruitful partnership. Through faculty and student exchanges, conference participation, workshops, and special lectures, both institutions have reaped the benefits of shared knowledge and expertise. This collaboration not only enriches the educational experience but also promotes a culture of continuous learning and academic growth.
